

Art: Ongoing Student Art Exhibitions

JANUARY THROUGH MAY
Location: CAT Student Gallery, CETAS Student Gallery, Andrews Center Student Gallery
Student Art Exhibition—an ongoing exhibition of student drawings, paintings, and photographs exhibited in the CAT and CETAS buildings, and in the Donald F. Andrews Reading & Writing Center on a continual basis throughout the semester.

Music: Sophia Hassevoort, soprano, Student Recital

JANUARY 26 AT 7:00 PM (FRIDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
Sophia Hassevoort, soprano, will perform a recital of classical and musical theatre vocal selections along with her collaborative pianist, Janelle McDonald. Sophia graduated with an AFA in Theatre Performance this past December, and this recital was originally scheduled for last month prior to her graduation, but was postponed due to illness. We are excited to welcome her back to perform her sophomore recital!

Music: Faculty Recital

FEBRUARY 13 AT 7:00 PM (TUESDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
Join the Chattanooga State Symphonic Band for a geo-musical journey. Featured on the program are works composed for Land, Sea, and Air. The Symphonic Band is directed by Nicholas Hartline and includes students from the STEM School, Collegiate High, as well as community volunteers.

Music: “Land, Air, and Sea” featuring the Symphonic Band

FEBRUARY 20 AT 7:00 PM (TUESDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
Join the Chattanooga State Symphonic Band on a toe-tapping journey through concert band works composed around songs, folk tunes, and dances. The Symphonic Band is directed by Nicholas Hartline and includes students from the STEM School, Collegiate High, as well as community musicians.

Theatre / Music: Legally Blonde the Musical

MARCH 1–2 AT 7:30 PM (FRIDAY-SATURDAY)
MARCH 3 AT 2:30PM (SUNDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
An award-winning musical based on the 2001 movie of the same name, this musical follows the story of UCLA fashion merchandising major Elle Woods as she goes to Harvard Law School to fight for love. Along the way, she goes through a journey of self-discovery and empowerment and finds love and friendship she never knew she was looking for. A musical featuring big song-and-dance numbers, this production stars Chattanooga State student Moriah Bone as Elle Woods and features other Chatt State students and alumni, as well as other performers from the Chattanooga area.
Admission FREE for ChattState Students, Faculty/Staff, and Theatre Alumni.
$15 General Admission.

Music: Emily Drexler Recital (Viola)

MARCH 7 AT 7:00 PM (THURSDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
Chattanooga State AFA Music graduate, and violin instructor, Emily Drexler, will present a violin recital featuring the Rhapsody No. 1 by Jesse Montgomery, the violin sonata by Amanda Maier, and other works. Dr. Alan Nichols will accompany on the piano.

Theatre / Music: Maggie Williams Cabaret Fundraiser

MARCH 23 AT 7:30 PM (SATURDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
Friends and Family of Maggie Williams come together to perform a cabaret of musical theatre songs celebrating her and honoring her friendship. Maggie is a Chatt State alumni and also was the production manager at Chattanooga State from 2016–2023, until she had a series of strokes at the beginning of April. She is continuing her recovery journey, and we are excited to celebrate her through song and dance! Admission is free, but donations will be accepted toward her family’s ongoing medical expenses.

Music: Jazz Band Concert

APRIL 2 AT 7:00 PM (TUESDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
The Chattanooga State Jazz band presents an evening of jazz standards with mixed ensemble, under the musical direction of Jay Stanfill.

Music: Concert Choir

APRIL 6 AT 7:00 PM (SATURDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
If you didn’t get a chance to get away over spring break, then join Chattanooga State’s Concert Choir for “What a Wonderful World.” We will take a musical round trip to faraway places, as we explore unique choral music and folk songs from China, Egypt, Brazil, Scotland, and others. We’ll end our vacation with a smooth landing back home for our final stop.

Music: Chattywampus Trio

APRIL 7 AT 3:00 PM (SUNDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
The faculty trio Chattywampus, led by flutist Cindy Solfest-Wallis, clarinetist Nicholas Hartline, and pianist Alan Nichols, will present an evening of chamber music from various musical periods and styles. The concert will also feature a student trio.

Theatre: Dog Sees God

APRIL 19–20 AT 7:30PM (FRIDAY-SATURDAY)
APRIL 21 AT 2:30PM (SUNDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre

THIS PRODUCTION IS RATED R AND IS NOT SUITABLE FOR CHILDREN. IT CONTAINS STRONG LANGUAGE, VIOLENCE, AND EXPLICIT CONTENT. Trigger Warning: Suicide, Bullying, Sexuality, Grief, Eating Disorders, and Substance Abuse.

This play is considered an “unauthorized continuation” of the popular Peanuts comic strip, and is advertised as a parody of the characters, depicting them as high school students with teenage issues. The play begins right after CB’s dog dies from rabies, and explores the relationships and issues he is having with his grief and his own identity. The play is both comedic and intensely dramatic, and explores deep issues in a way that is both harrowing and hopeful.
Admission FREE for ChattState Students, Faculty/Staff, and Theatre Alumni.
$15 General Admission.

Music: “Song and Dance” featuring the Symphonic Band and Dr. Amanda Hyberger

APRIL 25 AT 7:00 PM (THURSDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
Join the Chattanooga State Symphonic Band on a toe-tapping journey through concert band works inspired by songs, folk tunes, and dances. The program includes Five Folk Songs for Soprano and Band featuring Dr. Amanda Hyberger – Concert Choir Director. The Symphonic Band is directed by Nicholas Hartline and includes students from the STEM School, Collegiate High, as well as community volunteers.

Music: Student Recital

APRIL 26 AT 7:00 PM (FRIDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
Chattanooga State students of vocal and instrumental applied study will perform a recital of selected musical works of the classical, contemporary, and traditional American repertoires.

Theatre: Department Showcase

APRIL 30 AT 7:30PM (TUESDAY)
Location: Humanities Theatre
Come enjoy performances by acting and musical theatre students, and see showcases of work by design/tech students. Some scenes may include mature content not suitable for children. Admission is free and open to the public.

All events are free to the public (except as noted) and are presented at the Chattanooga State Humanities Theatre (except as noted), 4501 Amnicola Highway.
Donations will be accepted at the door.
For further information call 423.697.2460 (for Music) or 423.697.3246 (for Theatre).

CHATTANOOGA STATE
COMMUNITY COLLEGE