

Information Systems Administration

Associate of Applied Science Degree

Program Overview:

In this program you will learn concepts of database design and organization, how to create and maintain data in desktop applications such as Excel and Access, and how to manipulate data using tools such as SQL and SAS.

How Much Can I Earn?

$42,360-$75,190

*Wages and salary data provided by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, Tennessee Department of Labor

What Will I Do On The Job?

You will work with end users to design and create databases and extract information, maintain data, create queries and reports for management, and in some areas assist with web-based data-driven applications. You will also back and restore data and make sure that the database operates efficiently.

What Skills Will I Use On The Job?

You will need proficient knowledge of computers and various software programs. Good communication skills and leadership are important. You will also need to work independently, stay organized, and have good leadership skills.

Possible Job Titles:

Computer Support Specialist, Database Administrator, Technical Support Specialist, Help-Desk Technician

Who Will Hire Me?

Any industry from Government to Professional. Any large company that works with computers.

Need More Information?

Betsy Headrick, Associate Professor 423-697-4756 Betsy.Headrick@chattanoogastate.edu

Career Services & Counseling Center Student Center Room 137 • 423-697-4421