WE ARE

CHATTSTATE

Welcome to Chattanooga's Community College

Welcome to Chattanooga's community college where student success is our mission!

Whether you are the first in your family to attend college or you come from a strong college-going tradition, we believe that your time at this wonderful institution will make a difference in your life. Our college's greatest assets are the well-qualified caring instructors, counselors, staff and administrators you'll come to know during your time here. As a college, we pride ourselves on being prepared to meet the challenges of a global economy by making sure we maintain cutting edge facilities, well-established partnerships with our regional industries, and seamless transfer pathways with our universities.

Counseling, financial aid assistance, tutorial and career exploration are but a few of the many support services available to you as a Chattanooga State Tiger. We also encourage you during your time here to participate in the various student activities and organizations on campus. Data clearly shows students who participate in college life are far more likely to be successful in the classroom. These student activities provide the opportunity to build strong leadership skills and make lifelong friends.

Congratulations on your decision to be a graduate of Chattanooga State Community College. You are laying a solid foundation for your future and the future of our community.

Your Success is Our Success.

Money Matters, Financial Aid Terms:

Cost of Attendance (COA): The total amount it should cost a student to go to school--usually expressed as a yearly figure.

Disbursement: The release of grant and loan funds to the school for delivery to the student.

Dependent/Independent Verification: Federal FAFSA review to determine the accuracy of the information on a student's financial aid application. (Dependent will need to be completed by student and parent. Independent by student only.)

Entrance/Exit Counseling: Counseling sessions borrowers are required to attend before receiving their first loan disbursement and again before leaving school.

FAFSA: Free Application For Student Aid. The FAFSA is required for all federal and state financial aid.

Federal Work Study: is a federal need-based financial aid program designed to provide part-time employment to eligible students in positions both on and off campus.

FSA ID: Used to electronically sign FAFSA; can later be used to log in and complete Entrance/Exit Counseling and MPN at www.studentloans.gov, review federal aid history at www.nslds.ed.gov, and log back into the FAFSA to make corrections

Master Promissory Note (MPN): Legal document borrowers sign must sign to receive student loans.

Pell Grant: A need-based Federal grant awarded to students who are pursuing their first undergraduate degree. Pell Grants may also be available for part-time study.

Refund: A reimbursement of funds is issued to you when the sum of your loan(s), grant(s), and scholarship(s) awards is greater.

Money Matters

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP): Federal eligibility to receive financial aid based on your academic performance. SAP is measured each semester for your entire college career.

SEOG Grant: A need-based Federal grant.

Scholarship: Awards available for students who meet certain requirements. The application for institutional scholarships is available on the school website.

Subsidized Loan: A Federal loan which is awarded to a student on the basis of need. The federal government pays interest on the loan ("subsidizes" the loan) until you begin repayment

Unsubsidized Loan: A non-need-based Federal loan on which interest is not paid by the federal government.

Tax Return Transcript: A transcript of your tax return generated by the IRS needed for Verification.

Terms and Conditions: Acknowledgement of your awards and what students must do to maintain eligibility and receive disbursements.

Title IV Authorization: If accepted, excess financial aid will be available for books and orientation fees. If not, student will have to pay out of pocket for student fees and books.
